ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 10.-Crippled by the loss of Delehanty and Perrine, the Washington club went down to defeat again yesterday afternoon before the Browns with the score 5 to 4. Delehanty was sick and Cantillon was forced to switch Nill over to third and send Perrine to second. Even this line-up was allowed to stand for only one inning. In the second Perrine failed to get out of the way of a wild pitch which

Pickering also played with a bad ankle for St. Louis and Spencer caught part of the game with a swollen thumb. Rain fell during the entire first inning and caused Switch in Pitchers.

Smith and Powell started the game on the slab, but the former gave way to Patten in the sixth. There was no particular the extremely warm weather, as Smith pitched good ball in the sixth and had been going well since the first. Patten was hit hard the first inning he pitched, but was effective in the eighth. Powell looked easy during the first five innings, but after that was going strong. Rain made play in the first inning disagreeable. Clymer started off with a line drive into Stone's mitt, but Ganley walked and stole second and Anderson followed with another walk. Hickman's single to left scored Ganley, but Nill fouled to Buelow and Altizer forced Hickman. In the second half St. Louis came to the front with two runs on doubles by Niles and Pickering and a single by Stone.

Haydon walked and then rain caused a fifteen-minute postponement. Heydon tried to steal when the game was resumed, but went out. Perrine was hit and forced to retire, Jones running for him. Smith went out, advancing Jones, and the latter scored when Clymer drove through Niles for a hit. Two out in the fifth, Washington filled up the bases owing to hits by Altizer and Jones and a walk for Heydon, but Smith rolled out to Tom Jones. Niles' slash rolled out to Tom Jones. Niles' slash through Hickman, Hemphili's sacrifice and Hickman's fumble on Pickering's grounder gave St Louis a third run in the fifth. Patten Goes In.

Patten started pitching in the geventh and Niles' scratch hit into Hickman, Hemphill's sacrifice and singles by Pickering and Yeager scored two more runs for St. Louis. Washington made a belated rally in the ninth, but the game was never in danger so far as St. Louis was concern-With Clymer and Ganley out of the way. Nationals Again Lose to the St. it looked for a few minutes as though he would be lucky to get off the field outside of an ambulance. Powell shot one high and fast and it failed to break. Either "Nig" failed to see the ball coming or he judged that it would break in, as he did not make a move to get away. The ball landed with a crack that could be heard all over the stands, and Perrine went down in a heap. Application of ice water brought him to and he was assisted to the bench, where a couple of doctors attended him. Hickman literally murdered the ball. Officially up four times, his other turn at the plate resulting in a walk, he drove out four stinging hits. One was his home-run drive into the bleachers, while another in the seventh inning went for a double. Of the two singles he drew, the first was a hot grounder past short and the other was a line drive to left. Yeager lost a hit in the third, when he drove a hot liner right at Nill, the latter making a fine stop.

Yeager made a brilliant play on Heydon's hit in the third inning. Hickman was on first at the time, and Heydon drove one right over the hag at second.

right over the bag at second. Yeager raced over for a phenomenal stop, and then made a quick back-hand pass to Niles just in time to nip Hickman.
Powell, not satisfied with putting Perrine off watch in the second inning, came near sending Heydon to the hospital in the fourth, when he took a terrific swing at a third strike, the bat coming around and giving the Washington catcher a rap on the knuckles. Powell, by the way, was the first one to rush up to Perrine when the latter went down, and he hustled ice water like a good follow with "Ite". water like a good fellow until "Nig" was able to get up and go to the bench.

Yeager did a funny stunt in the sixth inning when he dropped Ganley's line drive and then threw Bob out at first. Had not Ganley quit running when he saw the ball hit Yeager's glove he would have been safe with almost certainty. C. Broome, c 1 1 10 3 0 Rathbone, rf Haman, rf, lf 1 3 2 1 0 Kelser, rf, cf Burus, p.... 0 0 0 3 0 an error, though neither was entitled to one for the play. Niles was on second, when Pickering drove past short to left field. Harry started with the crack of the bat, as two were out at the time, and he came home. It was an even break as to whether he would reach the plate or not, or possibly the chance was somewhat in his favor owing to his speed. The throw was low, and it shot around the ground under Heydon's glove to the grand stand and rebounded from the latter. Pickering in the meantime had taken second on the throw, as he was entitled to. Had he gained an extra base there would have been an error coming.

DFTROIT, Mich., July 10.-Except by the home-run method, Schaefer and Cobb each getting a four-base hit, Detroit found it almost impossible to score on Tannehill of Boston yesterday. LOBERT AND HUGGINS

PUT OUT OF GAME

BOSTON, Mass., July 10.—In the sixth inning of yesterday's game with Cincinnati, Lobert claimed that Tenney interfered with his throw when the Cincinnati player sent the ball into the bleachers, letting in three runs. Lobert and Huggins argued the point with Umpire Rigler, who ended the debate by putting the protestants out of the game.

Later a riot appeared probable when a spectator in one of the stands was arrested for refusing to give up a ball which went foul. Tenney, who assisted the police to identify the culprit, was hooted and jeered by a disorderly element.

Chicago University Resents His Re-

, mark on Failures. CHICAGO, July 10 .- Disappointment voiced by John D. Rockefeller over the fallure of the University of Chicago to produce more successes was interpreted as a slap at the university, and those connected with the institution have slapped right back at the man whose gifts of millions made the Midway institution possible. Mr. Rockefeller's statement was as follows: "The only regret I have concerning the university is that there are not as many phony hall. Open-air horse show and men as successful as I had hoped they races. Dedication of new Cambridge would be after their schooling there. But Special observances in the various I am advised by many friends and I hold that if the future will show that it was a wise undertaking I shall be satisfied."

Nothing in the history of the university Nothing in the history of the university has stirred the campus occupants more than this statement.

Members of the faculty and almost the entire student body attending the summer course aired their views of Mr. Rockefeller's remark. Among the points made against him are these:

union of oid-time base ballists. Orchestra concert. Evening, electrical parade. Friday, August 2—"Women's day." Receptions by various women's organizations. Children's entertainment.
